

Invitation for Expressions of Interest

The Dakchyata: TVET Practical Partnership project, funded by the European Union and managed by the British Council, today launches a call for Expressions of Interest (EOI) from interested Nepali organisations to apply for grants under the Practical Partnership Fund.

The Practical Partnership Fund provides grants to eligible organisations to deliver projects which strengthen the relevance, quality and sustainability of Technical Education and Vocational Training in Nepal, through a Public-Private Partnership approach. Funds are available up to a maximum of EUR 200,000 per project for Type 1 grant projects and EUR 350,000 per project for Type 2 grant project, activities in our three target sectors: Agriculture, Construction and Tourism.

Eligible Organisations include private enterprises, employer associations, federations, chambers, confederations, TVET service providers, cooperatives, and NGOs. Full eligibility requirements are available on our website.

More information on the Practical Partnership Fund, including objectives, full eligibility requirements, and how to apply can be found on our website <https://www.dakchyata-nepal.org/>

Interested organisations should submit a sealed Expression of Interest in the prescribed format no later than 17:00 NPT on 20 November 2018 at the British Council office in Lainchaur, Kathmandu.

The Dakchyata – TVET Practical Partnership project is funded by the European Union, and managed by the British Council in Nepal under the leadership of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technology and in coordination with the Council for Technical Education and Vocational Training.
